Today is Friday, and Friday night is pizza night at our house. My husband and I are in the living room. We are hungry, but we're not cooking tonight. Our two daughters are the chefs. They're a great team.

All the ingredients are on the kitchen counter. The dough is soft and white. The tomato sauce is bright red, and the cheese is ready. Their favorite toppings, pepperoni and olives, are in small bowls.

My older daughter's job is the sauce. My younger daughter is in charge of the cheese. The kitchen is a mess right now with flour everywhere. It's a lot of fun to watch them.

Now, the pizza is in the hot oven. It's not ready yet, but the smell is delicious. They're very excited. Fifteen minutes is a long time when they're hungry.

Finally, the pizza is ready! It's golden and perfect. They're very proud of their creation. Friday night is the best night of the week.
