

STORY: A BUSY SATURDAY

Today is Saturday. The city is very busy. David is walking downtown. First, he's going to the bank because he needs money. After the bank, he's going to the supermarket to buy fruit and vegetables.

On the street, he sees his friend Elena. She's not going to the supermarket. She's going to the hair salon. She wants a new haircut. Then, she's going to the drugstore to buy some vitamins.

In the afternoon, they have more plans. David is going to the gas station for his car, and then he's going to the hospital to visit a friend. Elena is going to the museum to see a new art collection. It's a very active day for everyone!
