

STORY: WHERE'S MARK TODAY?

Mark is a brave firefighter. Today is a very busy day for him and his team. In the morning, Mark is at the fire station. He's ready for his work.

Suddenly, there is an emergency. Mark is at the restaurant. The chefs and servers are outside the building. They're safe, but they are very worried. There is a small fire in the kitchen, but soon the situation is under control.

Next, Mark is at the park. This is a different emergency. A small cat is in a very tall tree. It's very scared. Mark is on a ladder. Now, the cat is down and it's very happy.

Later, Mark is at the hospital. This is not an emergency. He's there to talk to the doctors and nurses about fire safety. They're interested in his information.

Finally, the day is over. Mark is not at the restaurant and he's not at the hospital. He's at the fire station again. He's tired, but he's a hero!
