IRREGULAR VERBS - GROUP 3

creep	crept	crept
keep	kept	kept
sleep	slept	slept
sweep	swept	swept
weep	wept	wept

CREEP: The cat always creeps into my bed at night.

CREPT: The cat crept into my bed while I was asleep.

CREPT: The cat has crept into my bed every night this week.

KEEP: I try to keep my desk clean during the week.

KEPT: I kept my desk clean all day yesterday.

KEPT: I've kept my desk clean since Monday.

SLEEP: My doctor says I should sleep more.

SLEPT: I slept better after taking the medicine.

SLEPT: I've slept well for the past few days.

SWEEP: I usually sweep the kitchen in the morning.

SWEPT: I swept the kitchen after breakfast today.

SWEPT: I've already swept the kitchen twice this week.

WEEP: Sometimes I weep when I watch emotional movies.

WEPT: I wept during the ending of that movie last night.

WEPT: I've wept at the same scene every time I watch it.

IRREGULAR VERBS - GROUP 4

bleed	bled	bled
breed	bred	bred
feed	fed	fed
flee	fled	fled
lead	led	led
mislead	misled	misled
speed	sped	sped

BLEED: Kids sometimes bleed when they fall and scrape their knees.

BLED: My little brother bled a lot when he tripped and hit the pavement.

BLED: He has bled three times this month while playing outside.

BREED: Farmers often breed animals for milk or meat.

BRED: They bred goats on their farm last year.

BRED: They've bred animals on that farm for generations.

FEED: I feed the puppies as soon as I arrive at the shelter.

FED: We fed ten dogs before noon today.

FED: We've fed over fifty animals this week.

FLEE: Many families flee the area when storms get dangerous.

FLED: The Garcias fled their home during the hurricane last year.

FLED: Several families have fled this town because of the floods.

LEAD: Laura leads hiking tours every weekend.

LED: She led a group through the forest last Saturday.

LED: Laura has led over 100 tours this year.

MISLEAD: Fake headlines often mislead people online.

MISLED: That article misled thousands of readers last week.

MISLED: Several posts have misled the public about the situation.

SPEED: Drivers often speed when they're late for an appointment.

SPED: James sped down the highway to make it on time.

SPED: He has sped through that route many times before.

Notes: