IRREGULAR VERBS - GROUP 5

cling	clung	clung
dig	dug	dug
fling	flung	flung
hang	hung	hung
sling	slung	slung
sting	stung	stung
swing	swung	swung
wring	wrung	wrung

CLING: Young children often cling to their parents on the first day of school.

CLUNG: The little girl clung to her mother and refused to go inside.

CLUNG: That same child has clung to her every morning this week.

DIG: Clara always digs carefully when she plants something new.

DUG: She dug a large hole in the yard for the oak tree.

DUG: Clara has dug three holes today, but she's still not done.

FLING: Children love to fling water balloons across the yard.

FLUNG: One of them flung a balloon so hard it hit the tree.

FLUNG: They've flung balloons every afternoon this summer.

HANG: Alex always hangs new paintings in the living room himself.

HUNG: He hung two large frames above the sofa yesterday.

HUNG: Alex has hung five paintings this month.

SLING: The boy slings small rocks at cans for fun.

SLUNG: He slung one too far and broke a window yesterday.

SLUNG: That same boy has slung rocks in the field all summer.

STING: Bees sometimes sting people who get too close.

STUNG: A bee stung Rachel while she was watering the flowers.

STUNG: She has been stung twice this month in her garden.

SWING: Ethan loves to swing as high as he can at the park.

SWUNG: He swung back and forth for almost an hour yesterday.

SWUNG: Ethan has swung on that swing every afternoon this week.

WRING: Mia always wrings the clothes before hanging them to dry.

WRUNG: She wrung every shirt by hand this morning.

WRUNG: Mia has wrung all the laundry without using a machine.

Notes:

IRREGULAR VERBS - GROUP 6

stick	stuck	stuck
strike	struck	struck

STICK: This old door sticks when it gets humid.

STUCK: It stuck again this morning, and I couldn't open it.

STUCK: That same door has stuck every day this week.

STRIKE: Lightning often strikes trees during big storms.

STRUCK: A bolt struck the tree next to their house last night.

STRUCK: Lightning has struck near that neighborhood several times.

IRREGULAR VERBS - GROUP 7

sit	sat	sat
babysit	babysat	babysat
spit	spat	spat

SIT: Nora always sits on the same bench to read in the park.

SAT: She sat there for almost two hours yesterday.

SAT: Nora has sat on that bench every afternoon this week.

BABYSIT: Amy often babysits for the neighbors on weekends.

BABYSAT: She babysat their kids last Saturday from 5 to 10 p.m.

BABYSAT: Amy has babysat for that family many times this year.

SPIT: Some toddlers spit food when they don't like the taste.

SPAT: Jake spat out his vegetables at dinner last night.

SPAT: He has spat his food several times this week.

