IRREGULAR VERBS - GROUP 11

lay	laid	laid
pay	paid	paid
repay	repaid	repaid
say	said	said

LAY: Hens need a quiet place to lay their eggs.

LAID: One of the hens laid an egg in the corner of the coop.

LAID: That same hen has laid one egg every morning this week.

PAY: Emma tries to pay all her bills before the due date.

PAID: She paid everything online last night.

PAID: Emma has paid her bills on time every month this year.

REPAY: Daniel wants to repay his friend as soon as possible.

REPAID: He repaid him in full last Friday.

REPAID: Daniel has repaid every cent he borrowed.

SAY: Sophie needs to say her lines clearly on stage.

SAID: She said every word with confidence during rehearsal.

SAID: Sophie has said her lines perfectly all week.

Notes:

IRREGULAR VERBS - GROUP 12

bind	bound	bound
find	found	found
wind	wound	wound

BIND: Emily needs to bind all the reports before the meeting.

BOUND: She bound everything neatly last night.

BOUND: Emily has bound the monthly reports since January.

FIND: Olivia needs to find her keys before leaving for work.

FOUND: She found them under the bed this morning.

FOUND: Olivia has found her keys in strange places before.

WIND: Lily loves to wind her music box before going to bed.

WOUND: She wound it gently last night and listened to the tune.

WOUND: Lily has wound that music box almost every evening lately.

Notes:

IRREGULAR VERBS - GROUP 13

deal	dealt	dealt
feel	felt	felt
mean	meant	meant
meet	met	met
leave	left	left

DEAL: Anna needs to deal with a difficult customer today.

DEALT: She dealt with another complaint this morning.

DEALT: Anna has dealt with many similar cases before.

FEEL: Julia hopes to feel calm before her presentation.

FELT: She felt really nervous this morning.

FELT: Julia has felt the same way before every big speech.

MEAN: Olivia wants to learn what those words mean in English.

MEANT: That same word meant something totally different in the last lesson.

MEANT: This expression has meant different things depending on how it's used.

MEET: Sarah hopes to meet interesting people at the conference.

MET: She met several new colleagues at the welcome dinner.

MET: Sarah has met professionals from all over the country this week.

LEAVE: Mr. Jones plans to leave work early for his doctor's appointment.

LEFT: He left around noon yesterday to avoid traffic.

LEFT: Mr. Jones has left early twice this week for medical reasons.

