IRREGULAR VERBS - GROUP 14

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| build | built | built |
| rebuild | rebuilt | rebuilt |
| hear | heard | heard |
| overhear | overheard | overheard |
| make | made | made |
| light | lit | lit |
| have | had | had |
| lose | lost | lost |
| shoot | shot | shot |
| shine | shone | shone |
| slide | slid | slid |
| win | won | won |

BUILD: We want to build a small cabin in the woods.

BUILT: Last year, we built a cabin near the lake.

BUILT: We've already built three cabins in different parts of the forest.

REBUILD: The city decided to rebuild the old bridge after the flood.

REBUILT: They rebuilt it using concrete and steel.

REBUILT: By the end of summer, they had already rebuilt two major bridges.

HEAR: I can hear something outside the window.

HEARD: Last night, I heard footsteps in the backyard.

HEARD: I've heard that strange sound several times this week.

OVERHEAR: I sometimes overhear my coworkers talking about weekend plans.

OVERHEARD: Yesterday, I overheard them discussing a surprise party.

OVERHEARD: The conversation was overheard by the manager.

---

MAKE: I want to make a photo album for my sister.

MADE: She made one for me last year, and I loved it.

MADE: I've already made the cover and the first few pages.

---

LIGHT: Let's light a fire before it gets dark.

LIT: We lit the fire using dry sticks and paper.

LIT: The area was lit by the glow of the flames.

---

HAVE: I have too many tasks to finish today.

HAD: Yesterday, I had a long list of things to do.

HAD: By 10 a.m., I'd already had three urgent emails to answer.

---

LOSE: We usually lose when we play against that team.

LOST: Last season, we lost every single match.

LOST: We've lost so many games that we've stopped counting.

---

SHOOT: He goes to the range to shoot once a week.

SHOT: Last Saturday, he shot better than usual.

SHOT: He's shot hundreds of rounds since he started training.

SHINE: The stars always shine brighter in the mountains.

SHONE: Last night, the moon shone right above our tent.

SHONE: We've shone our flashlights in every direction, but still can't find the trail.

---

SLIDE: I love to watch the kids slide at the playground.

SLID: My daughter slid down the tall slide all by herself today.

SLID: She has slid down every slide in the park at least once.

---

WIN: I hope to win the chess tournament this year.

WON: Last year, I won after a very close final match.

WON: I've won three tournaments so far.

Notes: