THE HOUSE PROJECT

Luke and Madison bought an old house in a small village last year. In the beginning, the house was very dark and the garden was messy. The windows were broken, and the walls were a strange green color. They were nervous but excited about the project.

In January, they started the work. Luke painted the kitchen and the living room, while Madison cleaned the wooden floors. They worked very hard every weekend. They didn't hire a professional team because the price was too high. They fixed the doors and bought new furniture for the bedrooms.

However, they didn't finish everything on time. The bathroom wasn't ready in March, so they waited another month. Finally, in May, the house was beautiful and bright. They invited their neighbors for dinner and cooked a special meal. The neighbors were very kind and brought a beautiful plant for the garden. Luke and Madison were exhausted, but they didn't regret their decision. Now, they are very happy in their new home.

ANSWER THE QUESTIONS:

1. Why did Luke and Madison feel nervous but excited about the project?
2. What problems did the house have in the beginning?
3. What changes did Luke make in the house?
4. What changes did Madison make in the house?
5. Why didn't they hire a professional team?
6. What did they do every weekend while they worked on the house?
7. What happened in March, and how did they solve the problem?
8. How was the house different in May compared to the beginning?
9. What did Luke and Madison do to celebrate finishing the house?
10. Why do you think Luke and Madison didn't regret their decision?

A CAREER CHANGE

Mr. Hill was a clerk at a big insurance company for fifteen years. He was a good worker, but he wasn't happy with his routine. His office was small and dark, and his salary was low. He wanted a different life.

Two years ago, he decided to change everything. He didn't stay at the company; he quit his job in July. He studied at a culinary school for six months. It was difficult because he was older than the other people in the class, but he didn't give up. He practiced every day and learned how to cook international food.

Last December, he opened a small bistro in the city center. On the first day, he was very anxious. The bistro was full of people! He cooked all evening, and his brother helped with the tables. The customers were very happy and ate all the food. Mr. Hill didn't make a lot of money in the first month, but he was finally satisfied with his career. His new life was busy, but it was perfect for him.

ANSWER THE QUESTIONS:

1. What was Mr. Hill's job at the insurance company?
2. Why wasn't Mr. Hill happy with his routine?
3. How was his office, and how was his salary?
4. What decision did Mr. Hill make two years ago?
5. When did he quit his job, and why do you think he did it?
6. What did he do after he quit his job?
7. Why was culinary school difficult for him?
8. What did Mr. Hill do to improve his cooking skills?
9. What happened on the first day he opened the bistro?
10. Why do you think Mr. Hill felt satisfied with his new career?

THE FIRST PERFORMANCE

Sam and Dean were friends in high school. They didn't have a lot of money, but they wanted to start a band. Sam was a guitar player, and Dean was a drummer. Their first instruments were old and cheap, but they practiced every afternoon in a small garage. They didn't play very well in the beginning, but they didn't stop.

Last month, they received an invitation to play at a local festival. On the night of the show, the garage was empty because they were at the town square. The stage was big and the lights were bright. Sam felt nervous, but he didn't show it. They played five songs. The audience listened and clapped at the end. It was a great success! They didn't win a prize, but they were very proud of themselves.

ANSWER THE QUESTIONS:

1. How were Sam and Dean connected in high school?
2. What did Sam and Dean want to do even though they didn't have a lot of money?
3. What instrument did Sam play, and what instrument did Dean play?
4. What were their first instruments like?
5. Where did they practice, and how often did they practice?
6. How did they play in the beginning, and what did they do about it?
7. What invitation did they receive last month?
8. What was different about the garage on the night of the show, and why?
9. How did Sam feel before the show, and how did he act?
10. What happened after they played the five songs, and how did they feel in the end?

LIFE ON THE FARM

Henry is seventy years old now, but he remembers his childhood clearly. In 1960, his life was very different. He didn't live in a big city; his house was on a small farm. There wasn't a television or a computer in his home. The nights were very quiet and dark.

Every morning, Henry woke up at five o'clock. He helped his father with the cows and the chickens. He didn't take a bus to school; he walked three miles every day. The schoolhouse was small, and there was only one teacher for all the children. In the winter, the classroom was very cold, but the teacher started a fire in the fireplace. Henry didn't have many toys, but he played outside with his dog. He was a happy child because his life was simple and peaceful.

ANSWER THE QUESTIONS:

1. How old is Henry now, and what does he remember clearly?
2. What was Henry's life like in 1960 compared to now?
3. Where did Henry live when he was a child?
4. What things were not in Henry's home on the farm?
5. What were the nights like on the farm?
6. What time did Henry wake up every morning, and what did he do first?
7. How did Henry go to school, and how far did he walk?
8. What was the schoolhouse like, and how many teachers were there?
9. What was the classroom like in the winter, and what did the teacher do to help?
10. Why was Henry a happy child, even though he didn't have many toys?
